

Tribhuja — Site QA Checklist

Catalogue-essence audit. Walk through the live site with this checklist in hand. Tick each box only if the site passes that check. Any unticked box = a fix needed before launch.

Part 1 · Section-by-section content audit

Section 01 · Hero — Video

Catalogue line should read: "Where the light. Where the air. Where the quiet. Nine towers, where all three meet."

- Poetic line from catalogue is present, verbatim
- Facts accurate: Location stamp shows 'Kollur · Hyderabad · ORR Exit 2'
- Video autoplays muted with poster frame fallback
- No banned words (luxury / premium / world-class / state-of-the-art / exclusive)
- No exclamation marks

Section 02 · Location — Kollur

Catalogue line should read: "Not the edge of Hyderabad. Its next centre."

- Poetic line from catalogue is present, verbatim
- Facts accurate: 500 ft ORR frontage, 30 min airport, 24 min Financial District, 23 km greenbelt
- Map is dark mode, annotated, not an interactive Google Maps embed
- No banned words (luxury / premium / world-class / state-of-the-art / exclusive)
- No exclamation marks

Section 03 · The Master Plan

Catalogue line should read: "9.16 acres. Seventy-six percent open."

- Poetic line from catalogue is present, verbatim
- Facts accurate: 9 towers · 37 floors · 120 metres · clubhouse · grounds shown in aerial
- Headline stats appear alongside the illustration, not in a separate section
- No banned words (luxury / premium / world-class / state-of-the-art / exclusive)
- No exclamation marks

Section 04 · The Clubhouse — 100,000 sq ft

Catalogue line should read: "Every hour of Tribhuja's life passes through here."

- Poetic line from catalogue is present, verbatim
- Facts accurate: 100,000 sq ft claim as 'largest in Kollur', 16 amenity tiles with one-line captions
- Each tile captions a moment, not a feature (e.g. 'The evening begins when you do' — NOT 'Banquet hall')
- No banned words (luxury / premium / world-class / state-of-the-art / exclusive)
- No exclamation marks

Section 05 · The Grounds

Catalogue line should read: "In the water, the towers disappear."

- Poetic line from catalogue is present, verbatim
- Facts accurate: 5 zones with bracketed descriptors: Link Parks, Leaside, Terra, Aqua, Tranquil
- Zone names have plain-language descriptors so first-time visitors understand
- No banned words (luxury / premium / world-class / state-of-the-art / exclusive)
- No exclamation marks

Section 06 · The Homes — Unit Configurations

Catalogue line should read: "A plan drawn around a family, not a floor plate."

- Poetic line from catalogue is present, verbatim
- Facts accurate: 4 configs: 3BHK / 3BHK+Study / 4BHK / Corner 4BHK with sq ft + facing + tower
- No floor plan drawings shown on the public site
- No banned words (luxury / premium / world-class / state-of-the-art / exclusive)
- No exclamation marks

Section 07 · Home Interiors

Catalogue line should read: "A room that fills with the first light of the day."

- Poetic line from catalogue is present, verbatim
- Facts accurate: Render gallery: living, bedroom, kitchen, master bath, balcony; 10'6" ceiling visible
- Renders are consistent in lighting, style, and mood — feels like one photographer
- No banned words (luxury / premium / world-class / state-of-the-art / exclusive)
- No exclamation marks

Section 08 · Specifications

Catalogue line should read: "Built on what holds."

- Poetic line from catalogue is present, verbatim
- Facts accurate: RCC frame, UPVC windows, 4 lifts, 100% DG backup, STP, IoT BMS
- 3-column summary only, full spec gated behind PDF download — not inline wall of text
- No banned words (luxury / premium / world-class / state-of-the-art / exclusive)
- No exclamation marks

Section 09 · The Team Behind It

Catalogue line should read: "The hands behind the form."

- Poetic line from catalogue is present, verbatim
- Facts accurate: 8 consultants: LAVA, SEP, Strudcom, LEAD, Knight Frank, JLL, SK-A, L'Avenir
- Logo grid reads as credibility, not decoration — each logo is legible
- No banned words (luxury / premium / world-class / state-of-the-art / exclusive)
- No exclamation marks

Section 10 · Enquiry

Catalogue line should read: "Some homes are chosen. Others are kept for."

- Poetic line from catalogue is present, verbatim
- Facts accurate: Single CTA: Request a Visit · phone number visible
- No inline form, no chat widget, no floating contact button
- No banned words (luxury / premium / world-class / state-of-the-art / exclusive)
- No exclamation marks

Part 2 · Voice audit — read the whole site out loud

Scroll from top to bottom and read every line out loud. These five questions determine whether the site carries the catalogue's voice. Every answer must be yes.

- Does it feel like the same author wrote both the site and the catalogue? If the catalogue sounds like a novel and the site sounds like a brochure, the voice has drifted.
- Does every section open with a short poetic line before any facts? Pattern: short poetic observation → one grounding fact.
- Are numbers always paired with meaning? Not just '120m tall' — instead 'Eight hundred feet of vertical life.' Not just '10'6" ceilings' — instead 'Ten and a half feet above every floor.'
- Are amenities described as moments, not features? 'The evening begins when you do' rather than 'State-of-the-art banquet hall.' 'A ten-year-old's first swim' rather than 'Temperature-controlled pool.'
- Is there no marketing-speak anywhere? Search for: 'Book now', 'Don't miss', 'Limited units', 'Call today', 'Hurry', 'Exclusive offer'. If any of these appear, the register has broken.

Part 3 · Visual audit — does it look like the catalogue?

Element	Catalogue reference	Pass?
Background colour	Charcoal black #0E0E0F (warm, not pure black)	■
Primary accent colour	Copper #B87333 (not gold, not bronze, not yellow)	■
Secondary accent	Copper-soft #C88B5C for italic pull quotes	■
Body text colour	Cream #EDE6DA (not pure white, feels like aged paper)	■
Display typeface	Cormorant Garamond italic for all poetic copy	■
Small-caps typeface	Cormorant SC for section labels and micro-headers	■
Sans-serif	Used only for meta-data, labels, navigation, CTAs	■
Triangular emblem	Appears in hero / nav / favicon — copper on charcoal	■
Whitespace	Generous — some sections have only 3 lines of copy	■
Images	Consistent mood, cinematic, never stocky or generic	■

Part 4 · Technical audit

- Site loads in under 3 seconds on 4G mobile
- Hero video autoplays muted, has playsinline attribute, has poster frame
- Hero video file is under 4MB
- All images served as WebP with JPG fallback
- Images below the fold have loading="lazy"
- Lighthouse mobile score above 80
- Every section readable at 375px viewport width
- All tap targets minimum 44×44 pixels
- Nav collapses to hamburger below 768px width
- Page title under 60 characters, meta description 140–155 characters
- Open Graph + Twitter card tags present (check with opengraph.xyz)

- No console errors in browser dev tools
- Works in Chrome, Safari, Firefox, Edge

Part 5 · Client-pending items (cannot launch without)

- RERA-filed acreage confirmed (9.14 or 9.16) — replace all TODO flags in code
- SK-A sign-off on 5 grounds zone descriptions — replace 'placeholder' comments
- 8 priority keywords confirmed — lock into metadata
- Production domain configured (not .vercel.app URL)
- Telephone number live in footer and CTA
- OG card image designed (1200×630px) and wired to og:image meta tag
- Favicon vector delivered
- CRM endpoint wired to Enquiry CTA

How to use: run this checklist once before every major build review with Zuari. Any unchecked box is a gap to close before launch. Aim for 100% completion on Parts 1–4 before shipping, and Part 5 clears with Zuari's inputs.
